THE HISTORY OF BREGUET WATCHES

Breguet watches have a rich history dating back to the late 18th century. Founded by Abraham-Louis Breguet in Paris, the brand quickly gained a reputation for innovation and exquisite craftsmanship.

Breguet watches were favored by European royalty and influential figures such as Napoleon Bonaparte. The brand introduced numerous horological advancements, including the tourbillon mechanism and the self-winding watch. Today, Breguet continues to create timepieces that embody elegance, precision, and a timeless aesthetic. Explore the legacy of Breguet watches and experience the epitome of luxury horology.

Comprehensive Breguet Watch Repair Services

Our Breguet watch repair service covers every type of need for a repair and maintenance of keeping your timepiece in perfect working order, through to whatever it needs when it suffers a more minor or even major form of damage.

Movement Overhaul and Repair

The movements used by Breguet watches are purely mechanical, hence requiring expertise and accuracy when repairing. If the timepiece is running either faster than it should or slow and has stopped, the movement of your watch will be dismantled and inspected in minute detail by our master watchmakers. We replace broken parts and clean and lubricate the movement before calibrating the watch to have precision restored.

For Quartz Models: Battery Replacement

Dead batteries are pretty common when it comes to quartz Breguet watches. We replace dead batteries to get your Breguet watch working again. We use quality batteries which are designed to meet the specifications of the original ones for your watch to continue operating flawlessly.

Crystal Replacement and Polishing

A scratched or cracked crystal is going to detract from the beauty of your Breguet watch. We do replacement crystal services using top-quality materials, whether it's sapphire or mineral crystal that comes with your watch. If your crystal is lightly scratched, we also offer expert polishing that will restore its clarity and shine, so your watch will look like it did when you first bought it.

Strapping and Wristbands Repair

The strap or bracelet of your Breguet watch can be a good point of importance concerning its comfort and fashion. Worn out or damaged and broken straps call for the repair and replacement so the watch, once again, would shine with elegance while it stays comfortable to use. High-quality leather and metal replacement straps and bracelets are our offerings to ensure your quality Breguet timepieces.

Testing of water resistance and sealing

If your Breguet watches have lost their ability to keep water out, prompt attention must be given so that further damage is prevented. For our water resistance, the seals and gaskets were checked completely and sealed if necessary to prevent moisture from penetrating.

Dial and Hands Restoration

Time itself makes the dial and hands on your Breguet fade or damaged to some extent by the time it wears out, thus getting exposed to sunlight during the day. We then take utmost care of each watch dial and hand being professionally restored to their pristine beauty. Our techniques are engineered to not only recover and restore the look that both the dial and the hand had initially but ensure continuous, perfect working.
