THE HISTORY OF RADO WATCHES

Rado which was known as The Schlup & Co. watchmaking factory was founded by the brothers Fritz, Ernest and Werner in 1917. From 1950-1959 Schlup & Co had begun to sell watches under the name Rado. Towards the end of the decade, Rado was the truly international brand name for over 60 countries. In the 2000s Rado had ushered into the new millennium with the innovative eSenza which was the first designed watch by Rado without a crown. The Rado V10K was unveiled in 2002; this was made up of high tech diamond.
