THE HISTORY OF Casio Edifice WATCHES

Casio Edifice which was known as The Schlup & Co. watchmaking factory was founded by the brothers Fritz, Ernest and Werner in 1917. From 1950-1959 Schlup & Co had begun to sell watches under the name Casio Edifice. Towards the end of the decade, Casio Edifice was the truly international brand name for over 60 countries. In the 2000s Casio Edifice had ushered into the new millennium with the innovative eSenza which was the first designed watch by Casio Edifice without a crown. The Casio Edifice was unveiled in 2002; this was made up of high tech diamond.
