FAQ's

What services does Wefixanywatch offer?

Wefixanywatch performs all types of services on all types of watches, from mechanical to digital, quartz to luxury: from simple battery replacement or battery replacement to the most minute mechanical repairs.

How experienced is the team at Wefixanywatch?

We have very experienced and skilled watch technicians who have undergone extensive training in the repair and maintenance of watches. They are very skilled and take good care to work on a large variety of watch brands and models with high accuracy.

How long does a typical watch repair take at Wefixanywatch?

Repair times will depend on the type of problem and whether all necessary parts are in stock. In either event, we want to provide expedient service and will attempt to complete minor repairs the same day. If we anticipate needing more time to make major repairs, we will also give you an estimated time to repair at the time we diagnose your watch.

Do you offer warranty or guarantees on your repair services?

We are proud of our standard of quality that goes in behind the work. We give a warranty to all components and the service work. Detailed lists of warranties can be provided with your repair estimate.

Is there a cost for getting an estimate for watch repair at Wefixanywatch?

No, we offer free estimates on all our watch repair services. Our technicians will assess your watch and give you a detailed explanation of the required repairs along with their respective cost estimates. Once you get your estimate, you owe us nothing.

Can Wefixanywatch repair vintage or antique watches?

Yes, our experienced watch repair professionals can mend nearly every kind of watch, from the very oldest antique to the most highly modern. Our professional watchmakers know the unique artistry and mechanisms of most antique pieces and can restore these watches back to life and functional operation again.

How can I get my watch repaired by Wefixanywatch?

You can take your watch to one of our convenient service centers or mail it to us. Our customer service people will help you through all of this and make sure your watch gets the service it needs in a very timely and efficient manner.

What types of watches do you specialize in repairing?

At Wefixanywatch, any kind of service is available for watches-whether luxury, sports, diver watches, dress watches, or smartwatches, so, in effect, your expert is fully armed and up-to-date regarding the intricacies of more differently watched movements and technologies.

Do you offer cleaning and maintenance services for watches at Wefixanywatch?
