FAQs

What types of watches do you repair?

We repair most makes and models, including luxury and designer brands like Rolex, Omega, TAG Heuer, Breitling, and more. From quartz to mechanical and automatic watches, our skilled technicians can handle it all.

Where is your workshop located?

While we serve London and nearby areas, you can save time by posting your watch to our central workshop. We offer convenient delivery back to your home or workplace after the repair.

How much will my watch repair near {{mpg_city}} cost?

The cost of watch repairs for {{mpg_city}} is dependent upon the make, model, and issue with your watch. Watches have increasingly become more intricate and an inspection is frequently needed for an accurate quotation. No chargeable work is undertaken without your consent. Should you wish not to go ahead, your watch will be returned without charge.

How long does a repair take?

Repair times vary depending on the issue and the availability of parts. Simple repairs, like battery replacements, can be done quickly, while more complex restorations may take longer.

Do you repair vintage watches?

Yes, we specialise in repairing both modern and vintage watches. Our experts use precision tools to restore your timepiece while maintaining its original charm.

Is there a “watch repair near me” location I can visit?

We have a network of UK repair shops in most major cities, making it easy for you to access our services locally.
